

WEATHER FORECAST.
Fair and warmer to-day and to-morrow.

NO. 1708.

THE WASHINGTON HERALD

WASHINGTON, D. C., SATURDAY, JUNE 10, 1911.—TWELVE PAGES.

LARGEST MORNING CIRCULATION.

ONE CENT.

CARRIE NATION, SALOON'S ENEMY, ENDS LONG WAR

Death of Hatchet Wielder Comes in Sanatorium.

FOUGHT LIQUOR TRADE

Eleven Years Spent in Fanatical Outbursts.

Parents in Cause of Expected Death—No Message Left to Temperance Workers—Bricks Used in Demolished Kansas Saloons—Arrested in Many Cities for Attacks on Bar-rooms—Published "The Hatchet."

Leavenworth, Kans., June 9.—Mrs. Carrie Nation, of hatchet fame, because of her fanatical fight to down the sale of liquor in her own State and the entire country, died at 7 o'clock to-night in Evergreen Sanatorium here of paresis. Her death had been expected since noon yesterday, when she passed into a comatose state.

Mrs. Nation left no message to the world or to her friends. Apparently she did not know that death was so near, for even when told by the physician some days ago that she probably would never leave the sanatorium she only smiled and shook her head.

ENTERED VAUDEVILLE.

Carrie Nation, who first regarded herself as a woman with a mission to destroy the rum and cigarette traffic, and later made use of her mission for vaudeville, wielded the hatchet against saloons actively in nearly every city of importance in the United States and some in Great Britain, and then retired with enough money to buy a farm in Arkansas. She was arrested and held in jail for a time in nearly every city she visited.

Mrs. Nation was born in Kentucky, and her maiden name was Moore. She was a schoolmate of Seneca H. Blackburn. Her mother was said to have died in an insane asylum. Mrs. Nation was married twice. Her second husband, Capt. David Nation, was a civil war veteran. Her early married life was spent in Texas.

Mrs. Nation had not been heard of outside of her own circle until June 6, 1900, when she and her husband were living in Medicine Lodge, Kans. One day she drove in her buggy to Kiowa, and with half a dozen bricks she demolished three saloons and would have smashed all the others in town if the proprietors had not locked the doors.

She became a national character at once and extended her activities to Topeka, Wichita, and then to other cities. After that she was in jail three times in Topeka and seven times in Wichita.

Fined in Washington.

Mrs. Nation was put out of the White House in 1902 when President Roosevelt was there, and was fined $25 for disturbing the Senate.

She ran a temperance paper—the Hatchet—in Oklahoma in 1906, and a warrant was issued for her for sending improper matter through the mails.

On her first visit to New York in August, 1901, Mrs. Nation visited police headquarters and the saloon of John L. Sullivan, who got out of sight at her approach. She did no smashing that time.

She appeared in "Ten Nights in a Barroom," and later she lectured on drink and cigarettes.

Her second husband, Capt. Nation, got a divorce from her in Kansas in November, 1901, on the ground of gross neglect.

SOCIAL WAR IMMINENT IN ASTOR CONTINGENT

Special to The Washington Herald.

Newport, R. I., June 9.—A social war is anticipated here as a result of Mrs. Astor's return to Newport, for there is no mistaking the fact that the summer settlement is divided between Col. John Jacob Astor and his beautiful former wife.

Col. Astor is making elaborate plans to entertain in honor of his son, Vincent, now the biggest matrimonial catch in society.

MRS. KINGDON IS DEAD.

Mother-in-law of George Gould Succumbs to Lung Illness.

Paris, June 9.—Mrs. Mary Kingdon, the mother of Mr. George J. Gould, died at the Ritz Hotel to-day. Her three daughters were at her bedside.

Mrs. Kingdon was born in England. When her daughter, Edith Kingdon, elected to follow the stage and joined one of the Boston stock companies, she aided her in her ambition.

Later Miss Kingdon became a member of Daly's company and met Mr. George Gould.

Mrs. Kingdon always had had the affection of her son-in-law, and made her home with him. Owing to her husband's death, Lady Decies will probably not be present at the coronation.

1900 to Leary, Va., and returned, Sunday, June 11, Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. Special train leaves Union Station 11:30 a. m.

11:30 Baltimore and Return, Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. All trains both ways, both days, except Royal Limited.

VILES EXPECTED TO JOIN BRIDE IN ST. LOUIS, MO.

She Will Not Come Here with Her Son.

MAY RESIGN HIS OFFICE

Chief Clerk Probably Will Run for Congress.

Crowd of Curious People Sit in Front of Viles' Residence to Obtain Glimpse of Woman and Son, Who Fail to Appear—Wide Publicity of Seizure of Boy Regretted—Wedding Exposed by Trip to Texas.

Contrary to all expectations, and in direct contradiction of so-called official reports given out both in this city and in St. Louis, Mrs. Beulah Paden Viles, bride of thirteen days of Voler V. Viles, chief clerk of the Census Bureau, not only did not leave St. Louis last Thursday to come to Washington, but has no intention of doing so.

WILL JOIN HIS WIFE.

According to statements made last night by Mrs. Thomas Burns, of 218 A street southeast, an employee in the office of the chief clerk, at whose house Mr. Viles formerly boarded, it is his intention to join his wife in either Springfield or Mansfield, Mo., in the near future.

All indications point to the supposition that it is Mr. Viles' plan to resign his position as chief clerk and announce his candidacy for Congress from the sixteenth district of Missouri. For some time there have been rumors concerning Mr. Viles entering the Congressional race, but he has not yet made an official announcement. Acting in accordance with the rules governing employees in the civil service, Mr. Viles would have to relinquish his office under the government before announcing his candidacy for Congress.

While press dispatches from St. Louis have continued to state that Mrs. Viles left that city at 5 o'clock last Thursday afternoon for Washington, no confirmation of these statements has been made here. Neither Mr. Viles nor inmates of his house at 228 Maryland avenue northwest would say whether Mrs. Viles was expected last night. Rumors that she was to arrive had reached the neighborhood, and from early evening until late the lawn benches in front of the houses in the row of which Mr. Viles' house is a part were occupied by curious people who watched the Viles residence for a chance glimpse of the bride and her boy. The house remained dark throughout the evening, and Mr. Viles was not seen after 8 o'clock.

Did Not Expect Her.

Mrs. Thomas Burns, who has known Mr. Viles for years, stated that while talking over the telephone with him he had said he did not expect Mrs. Viles at all. Mrs. Burns says that from what Mr. Viles had told her in the last few days she is certain Mrs. Viles will not come to Washington, but that he will go to Springfield or Mansfield to meet her, and will probably stay there. Mrs. Burns says that Mr. Viles has made every effort to keep the news of his marriage a secret and that it would not have leaked out had not Mrs. Viles gained possession of her son in Texas.

Mrs. Burns stated it was her belief that Mr. Viles had telegraphed his wife last Thursday either to stay in St. Louis or go to Springfield, so as to avoid the publicity which her arrival in Washington would occasion.

Three Joy Riders Injured.

Chicago, June 9.—Three joy riders, a man and two girls, were seriously injured when an automobile, owned by W. R. Card, a wealthy clubman, and driven by his chauffeur, Elmer Gardner, plunged from a bridge over Meadow Creek, near Deerfield, early to-day.

RAISED VOUCHER PROBE MAY LEAD TO COURTS

Investigating Committee Determined to Go to the Bottom of the Affair

Unless more convincing proof than has hitherto been advanced that the money improperly expended is obtained by the House committee investigating expenditures in the State Department, the final chapter of the Rosenthal raised voucher case will be written in a criminal court with William H. Michael, former chief clerk of the department, as defendant in an embezzlement suit. Mr. Michael is now United States consul at Calcutta.

This is the present temper of the committee as expressed by Chairman Hamilton yesterday. The committee is by no means satisfied with the testimony recently offered in explanation by Secretary Root.

TEN SHOTS KILL EIGHT, WOUNDING ONE, IN ROW

Foreman and Conductor Break Records for Deadly Fire in Fight With Unruly Section Gang.

New Orleans, June 9.—W. I. Boutlee and George Storey are believed to have broken all records for rapid and deadly revolver shooting, when at La Branch, La., this afternoon they shot and killed eight negroes in ten minutes. There was one wounded, which puts Storey's score ahead of Boutlee's.

The negroes were members of a section gang, and Boutlee is foreman. The blacks conceived a hatred for the "boss" and plotted to kill him.

They engaged in a fight among themselves, and when Boutlee rushed over to stop the row they turned upon him, and one struck him over the head with a shovel. Boutlee fell, but sat up, and before he finished rising to his feet he shot four times and killed four negroes.

George Storey, a conductor, heard the first loud talking among the negroes, looked at his watch and saw he had just ten minutes before train time. He ran down the track and arrived just as Boutlee finished shooting.

Storey then killed four negroes and wounded one, with six shots, then returned and took his train out on time.

THROWN FROM CARRIAGE IN VICIOUS RUNAWAY

Bernard Arendes and Family Have Narrow Escape in Anacostia—Baby Boy May Be Seriously Injured.

With his horse mad with fright and his carriage swaying over the Anacostia hills, Bernard Arendes, of 101 Branch road southeast, strove heroically to save his wife, his babies, and his mother-in-law from serious injury or death last Friday afternoon. Through the timely aid of two policemen, he succeeded.

His two-year-old boy, Bernard, was flung with force to the ground when the carriage struck a bowlder, and his left leg and ankle are broken. His five-year-old son, William, was thrown from the carriage and landed on his head. When the carriage struck a bowlder, it tilted at an angle of forty degrees, and the little boy was thrown from his mother's lap to the ground. It seemed certain he must have been killed by the fall.

A short distance from this point rescue came. Sgt. G. B. Cornwell and Policeman Jones were in Good Hope road ahead of the carriage, and waved their arms to stop the horse when it came up. They grasped the bride, and were dragged for several yards before the runaway equine was halted. The carriage was stopped with such force that it overturned, with its occupants below it. They were extricated from the mass with Mrs. Arendes bleeding profusely on the head and arms.

Disregarding her own injuries, the mother became hysterical over the fate of her boy. Policeman Jones ran back to pick the child up, and found him unconscious. It was at first thought he would die. Sgt. Cornwell called the ambulance from Casualty Hospital, and all were taken there. Little Bernard will remain there until the broken bones are set, but the other members of the family went to their home last night after Mrs. Arendes' injuries were dressed.

An automobile breaking the speed law along Good Hope road was the cause of the runaway. Although its occupants saw the fright of the horse, they made no effort to check their speed. Arendes is a mechanic in the navy yard.

BROKER ATTACKED.

Tack Hammer Wielded on Victim's Head by Cripple.

Philadelphia, June 9.—With his skull fractured in two places by blows from a tack hammer wielded by George W. Sutton, twenty-four years old, a broker, William Taylor, fifty years old, another broker, is lying at the point of death in the Pennsylvania Hospital. Sutton is held without bail to await the result of Taylor's injuries.

The pair quarreled in Taylor's office, 501 Chestnut Building, at noon. Taylor is quoted as saying that Sutton tried to rob him. Sutton, who has an artificial leg, and whose right hand was recently operated upon to check blood poison, told the police that he used the hammer to protect himself when Taylor attacked him. The attack, he said, followed his refusal to buy stock from the concern that Taylor was founding.

Family Is Hired.
Portland, Ore., June 9.—William Hill, his wife, and two children were murdered by an unknown man some time last night in their home in Milwaukee, a suburban community.

St. Mary's Ferry, Charlestown, and Washington are returning, Sunday, June 11, Baltimore and Ohio R. R. Special train leaves Union Station 11:30 a. m.

TWINS ARE EXPENSIVE UNDER DOCTORS' TRUST

Special to The Washington Herald.

Manchester, Conn., June 9.—The physicians of this city have organized a medical and surgical trust and have arranged a scale of prices for specific services.

The price for the amputation of one toe or finger is $10, with $5 each for each toe or finger additional.

It will cost the family $5 more to have twins than to have babies one at a time.

AQUEDUCT FALLS.

Workman Killed When Entombed by Sewer Structure.

Special Cable to The Washington Herald.

Havana, June 9.—A section of the aqueduct of Havana's new sewerage system, now under construction by McElwain and Rokeby, of New York, collapsed this afternoon, entombing a large force of workmen.

Rescuers have taken one body and five injured men from the debris.

COAL FRAUD CHARGED.

Pittsburg Man Alleges Swindle on Promotion.

Pittsburg, June 9.—Detective R. H. Robinson is on his way to New York to bring back Thomas Latimer and John Phillips, charged with conspiracy to defraud.

Edward C. Stolsenbaum alleges that Phillips declared that he and Latimer represented English capitalists, who intended financing new coal ventures in the West Virginia field.

Stolsenbaum posted $2,000, he says, as an evidence of good faith, and that he has been swindled.

MISSOURI TWINS WED

LONE STAR STATE PAIR

Austin, Tex., June 8.—Two Missouri twins married two Texas twins at San Marcos, thirty miles south of here, yesterday. The brides were Misses Alma and Alta Moore, and the grooms Leland and Lorin Tabler, of Adrian, Mo.

The brides resemble each other so closely that their most intimate friends cannot tell them apart, and the twin grooms also look as much alike as two peas.

The twin brides were dressed alike, as were the two grooms. To distinguish one from the other different colored flowers were worn.

The young men were informed about a year ago of the two women, this leading to correspondence and an exchange of photographs. Last Christmas the young men came to see the young women. This led to the marriage.

Who Are Vainer, Men or Women? Read the Sunday Edition of The Washington Herald.

Do you want to know about Crabs and Crab Feasts? Read the Sunday Edition of The Washington Herald.

Do you want to know about "Abe Martin" in real life? Read the Sunday Edition of The Washington Herald.

If you want the best Woman's Section, Sporting Section, Boys' and Girls' Magazine Section, and Comic Supplement, get the Sunday Edition of The Washington Herald to-morrow. SEND YOUR ORDER IN TO-DAY.

A COMPLETE SUNDAY PAPER.

11:30 to Baltimore and Return, Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. All trains both ways, both days, except Royal Limited.

11:30 Baltimore and Return, Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. All trains both ways, both days, except Royal Limited.

11:30 Baltimore and Return, Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. All trains both ways, both days, except Royal Limited.

11:30 Baltimore and Return, Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. All trains both ways, both days, except Royal Limited.

11:30 Baltimore and Return, Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. All trains both ways, both days, except Royal Limited.

11:30 Baltimore and Return, Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. All trains both ways, both days, except Royal Limited.

WOMAN WINS SPOILS IN PLAY WITH THIEF

St. Paul, Minn., June 9.—Like a scene from "The Girl of the Golden West" was the thrilling experience through which Mrs. David Ellis passed yesterday morning.

Awakened by a burglar, she promptly challenged him to a game of "seven-up."

With a revolver at his elbow, the burglar lost three games to his clever antagonist, and chivalrously conceded she had won her right to keep "the spoils." Then he left.

In true sporting spirit, Mrs. Ellis did not attempt to put the police on his trail.

REHEARSALS HELD FOR CORONATION

Cardboard Crowns Placed on Heads of Dummies.

Special Cable to The Washington Herald.

London, June 9.—Several of the most important features of the coronation circumstances were rehearsed to-day in the Abbey Church of St. Peter, Westminster.

The rehearsal started with the formation of the coronation procession. All of the principal participants, with the exception of the King and Queen, were in place.

The procession proceeded into the abbey, where the complete religious services were rehearsed, and the Archbishop of Canterbury, assisted with all the characters representing King George and Queen Mary and placed, cardboard crowns upon their heads.

Kohl's Condition Reported Better

Capitalist Recovering from Attack by Girl.

Special to The Washington Herald.

San Francisco, June 9.—C. Frederick Kohl, prominent capitalist, who was shot yesterday by Adele Verge, a French maid, formerly in the employ of Mrs. Kohl, rested well to-day and his physicians believe he may recover.

An X-ray examination will be made to locate the bullet, which lodged in his breast.

Adele Verge is still in a hysterical state. She prays incessantly for the recovery of her victim. She declares she does not know why she shot Kohl. She says she brought the revolver several months ago to protect herself against the detectives whom she alleges Kohl hired to persecute her.

Social circles of Washington were buzzing with gossip yesterday regarding the shooting of C. Frederick Kohl in San Francisco.

He married Miss Elizabeth Godey, daughter of Mrs. Catherine M. Godey, about eight years ago in this city, and the nuptials attracted wide social interest because of the beauty and social standing of the bride and the wealth of the bridegroom.

The wedding took place in the O. T. Crosby house in Cleveland Park. Mr. Kohl is a member of the Metropolitan Club, and has made frequent trips here since his marriage. His wife, who has been visiting friends in Philadelphia, left for San Francisco yesterday.

Mrs. Kohl is a member of the Metropolitan Club, and has made frequent trips here since his marriage. His wife, who has been visiting friends in Philadelphia, left for San Francisco yesterday.

Shooting of C. F. Kohl Stirs Capital Society

Earthquakes Signal Eruption of Volcano.

Rome, June 9.—Mount Etna is again active. In the past twenty-four hours there have been a number of rumblings and several slight earthquakes.

Mount Etna Active.

Earthquakes Signal Eruption of Volcano.

Rome, June 9.—Mount Etna is again active. In the past twenty-four hours there have been a number of rumblings and several slight earthquakes.

Mount Etna Active.

Earthquakes Signal Eruption of Volcano.

Rome, June 9.—Mount Etna is again active. In the past twenty-four hours there have been a number of rumblings and several slight earthquakes.

Mount Etna Active.

Earthquakes Signal Eruption of Volcano.

Rome, June 9.—Mount Etna is again active. In the past twenty-four hours there have been a number of rumblings and several slight earthquakes.

Mount Etna Active.

Earthquakes Signal Eruption of Volcano.

Rome, June 9.—Mount Etna is again active. In the past twenty-four hours there have been a number of rumblings and several slight earthquakes.

Mount Etna Active.

Earthquakes Signal Eruption of Volcano.

Rome, June 9.—Mount Etna is again active. In the past twenty-four hours there have been a number of rumblings and several slight earthquakes.

Mount Etna Active.

Earthquakes Signal Eruption of Volcano.

Rome, June 9.—Mount Etna is again active. In the past twenty-four hours there have been a number of rumblings and several slight earthquakes.

Mount Etna Active.

AGENT OF TROUPE NABBED; POLICE WIRE FOR GIRL

Violation of Child Labor Laws Is Charged.

SENSATION MAY RESULT

Gertrude Rollins in North Carolina, Says Henry White.

Following Capture of Ethel Deans in South Last Week, Her Chums, Also Lured by Stage, Disappeared. Letters at Her Home Lead to Arrest of Employer, Who Says She Presented Signed Contract.

Sensational disclosures which may result in legal investigation of theatrical booking agents in Washington were brought to light by the disappearance Thursday of Miss Gertrude Rollins, fifteen years old, of 613 East Capitol street, who was inspired by her chum, Ethel Deans, to follow the lure of the footlights, and the arrest last night of Harry White, thirty-five years old, booking agent for the Lenore Comedy Company, 1114 G street northwest, charged with violating the child-labor laws.

SENSATION LIKELY.

That the arrest of White, who is also charged with being responsible for the engagement last week of Ethel Deans, will disclose other cases of similar character is the opinion advanced by the police.

It was also learned last night that Acy Rollins, an employee of the District street-cleaning department, and father of Gertrude, has been missing from his home since Tuesday night. Mrs. Florence Rollins, the girl's mother, said that he had had several disputes with their daughter because of her fancy for the stage.

It will be recalled that the Rollinses are the same persons who sheltered Florence Carey, the sixteen-year-old girl whose sensational leap from the third-story window of the House of the Good Shepherd last winter led her into a mass of difficulties with the Juvenile Court.

White admits he had communicated with the Rollins girl at various times, and said she is now with the Lakeside Casino, at Durham, N. C., with the same company which Ethel Deans joined last week. Inspector Boardman wired to Durham last night, and the young girl will be arrested and returned to this city.

Will Face Employer.

When the Rollins girl is brought to Washington she and Miss Deans will be called to appear against White in the Juvenile Court. White claims the girl came to his office several weeks ago and accepted a proposition at $15 a week with the North Carolina troupe. He says he gave her a contract and the next day she came to his office with the contract signed by her parents and giving her age as eighteen years.

Mrs. Rollins said last night that neither she nor her husband had seen the contract and did not sign any paper. She said that her daughter, who is friendly with Ethel Deans, had become stage-struck and had been refused their permission to join any theatrical company.

Mrs. Rollins went out Thursday night, locking the door to her room, which is next to that of her daughter, on the second floor. When she arrived home she found a note which read in part as follows:

"Dear Mother: I have gone away with a theatrical company. Please forgive me. Your daughter, GERTRUDE."

Mrs. Rollins found her daughter had crawled out on the ledge of the window sill of her own room, and climbed into her mother's window. She carried with her almost every article of clothing she possessed.

Mrs. Rollins reported the matter to police headquarters, and Detectives Baur, Cornwell, and McNamee were assigned to the case. By letters which Gertrude had shown to her mother they located White in his office. He admitted he was the man they were looking for. He was taken to headquarters and released on bail.

INDEMNITY ASKED.

Special Cable to The Washington Herald.

Mexico City, June 9.—Indemnity of 13,000,000 pesos for the massacre of 350 Chinese during the Mexican revolution will be demanded of the Mexican government by a Chinese cruiser now on the way to Mexico. The Chinese charge d'affaires is authority for the news.

In a statement given out to-day he said: "If the matter is acted upon favorably, I shall give the world the full reports of the acts of savagery committed in Torreon."

AVIATORS KILLED.

Johannethal, Germany, June 8.—Herr Schendel, the aviator, and his mechanic, Voss, were instantly killed this evening when the Dornier monoplane, in which they were descending after establishing a new German altitude record of 4,800 feet, plunged to the ground.

Herr Schendel made a new record of 4,300 feet on Tuesday, and ascended this afternoon with the announced intention of eclipsing it.

It is believed he attempted to glide to earth and lost control of the machine.

11:30 to Baltimore and Return, Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. All trains both ways, both days, except Royal Limited.

11:30 Baltimore and Return, Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. All trains both ways, both days, except Royal Limited.

11:30 Baltimore and Return, Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. All trains both ways, both days, except Royal Limited.

11:30 Baltimore and Return, Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. All trains both ways, both days, except Royal Limited.

11:30 Baltimore and Return, Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. All trains both ways, both days, except Royal Limited.

11:30 Baltimore and Return, Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. All trains both ways, both days, except Royal Limited.

11:30 Baltimore and Return, Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. All trains both ways, both days, except Royal Limited.

11:30 Baltimore and Return, Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. All trains both ways, both days, except Royal Limited.